

MISSION STATEMENT

It is the mission of the Henry County Sheriff's Office to effectively perform all lawful duties in a professional and reliable manner to insure the safety of the citizens of the County of Henry. The Henry County Sheriff's Office is committed to enforce the laws of the United States, the Commonwealth of Virginia and the County of Henry. A community oriented policing philosophy enables the community to unite in partnership to achieve the common goal of enhancing the quality of life in Henry County.

ORGANIZATION

The Henry County Sheriff's Office is a full service Law Enforcement and Corrections Sheriff's Office with 114 employees, 101 fleet vehicles and an 8.3 million dollar annual budget.

The County of Henry is 384 square miles and has a population of approx. 54,151. The Sheriffs' Office is comprised of 4 divisions: Administrative Operations, the Patrol Division, the Investigations Division and the Corrections Division.

DIVISIONS

Administrative Operations

The Operations Division has 20 Deputy Sheriffs, 6 clerical employees and 1 maintenance employee assigned to the Division who are supervised by the Captain. The Operations Division provides a variety of services and programs:

- Crime Prevention
- School Resources Officers (SRO)
- Animal Control/Animal Shelter
- Electronic Incarceration Program
- Criminal Records Management
- Civil Process
- Purchasing
- Maintenance
- Professional Standards

Corrections Division

The Corrections Division has 30 Deputy Sheriffs, 2 Paramedics, and 2 jail Cooks, assigned to the division who are supervised by the Division Captain. The Corrections Division is responsible for security at the County jail facility, courthouse, and the transportation of inmates.

Investigation Division

The Investigation Division has 19 Investigators and 4 clerical employees assigned to the division who are supervised by the division Captain. Investigators assigned to the Criminal Investigation Unit investigate a multitude of crimes such as larcenies, burglaries, child pornography, and homicides. Investigators assigned to the Special Investigation Unit investigate drug-related crimes.

Patrol Division

6 Shifts - 5 Lieutenants, 5 Sergeants, 25 Deputy Sheriffs

The patrol shifts are designated to overlap at peak time periods to provide additional personnel on duty. The Patrol Division responds to initial calls for services, investigates criminal offenses and enforces traffic violations.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Electronic Incarceration Program This is a computerized incarceration-monitoring program utilized by the Henry County Sheriff's Office. It is available for non-violent inmates in the custody of the Sheriff's Office who do not present a criminal threat to the community. The inmates are confined to their residences on a twenty-four (24) hour a day basis or during specified evening hours while maintaining gainful employment. The program has stringent qualification requirements and is closely supervised and monitored by the Sheriff's Office to insure program compliance.

Inmate Work Force Program The Henry County Sheriff's Office has implemented an Inmate Works Force Program. Inmates incarcerated at the Henry County Jail who are non-violent offenders and who have received formal sentencing are eligible for consideration into the program. Inmates who participate in the program file an application and the Sheriff's Office conducts a review of the application to insure each inmate meets the required classification status. Inmates who participate in the program are utilized to clean up trash and debris along roadways throughout Henry County while under the supervision of a Deputy Sheriff. The Inmate Work Force Program is a valuable asset to the community by making Henry County a cleaner community.

School Resource Program The Henry County Sheriff's Office has an active role in the Henry County Public School System by providing 4 Deputy Sheriff's to the School System which are School Resource Officers at the two county high and middle schools, ten elementary schools and one alternative/CCL school. The goal of the SRO program is to provide a safe learning environment where the officers act as counselors, peacekeepers and role models in the school system. Over 7,462 students are served by the SRO program thereby making our schools safer.

Neighborhood Watch Program The Sheriff's Office works closely with residents of neighborhoods who choose to unite in an effort to prevent crime from occurring in their communities. Neighbors learn how to watch out for their neighbors, thereby making the communities safer. Participants in the program receive crime prevention training. They learn how to avoid becoming a crime victim and ways to monitor and improve neighborhood conditions.

Senior and Teen (COP) Police Academy Programs The Henry County Sheriff's Office and the Martinsville City Police Department have united both agencies in a combined effort to provide the citizens of both communities with a specialized informative 8- week course related to law enforcement training and procedure, the Community Oriented Policing concept and the organizational structure of each agency.

Volunteer Program The Henry County Sheriff's Office is working towards implementing a Volunteer Program that will help support the Field Services Division. This unit will comprise of mostly retired officers acting in civilian roles assisting with assigned duties. Each member will be required to attend sixty (60) hours of training on areas approved by the Sheriff. Hours of operation shall be six (6) hour shifts Monday thru Friday from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm.
